Tuition Benefit Provisions - Spouse of Hourly Employee
Graduate Level Course

Eligibility

1. Spouses of Full-time hourly employees are eligible for no more than 6 units per term (quarter or summer session), no more than 2 classes per term, and no more than a maximum of 8 per year. Spouses are also eligible to receive a 50% reduction for additional units to eight per year after the employee has 4 years of La Sierra University employment.

2. Eligibility for this benefit is not cumulative or retroactive and applies only to the scholastic period being applied for.

3. To be eligible for this benefit, the employee must have worked a minimum average of 72 hours per pay period for the proceeding 6 pay periods prior to registration day.

Specifications

1. This benefit applies to course work taken at La Sierra University.

2. Distance Learning courses, private lessons, laboratory courses, extension courses and other activity and studio courses are excluded. Charges for materials and field trips are paid by the enrollee.

3. The applicant must qualify scholastically for the work to be taken in any school and in any course in which admission is requested.

4. Admittance to a "limited enrollment" course is possible only if there is room after all regular tuition paying students have been accommodated. Exemption does not apply to the spouse who is a full-time student.

5. If the number of regular tuition paying students does not justify offering a course, it will not be offered for the convenience of additional enrollees who are entitled to this tuition benefit. Also, the free tuition benefit may not be applicable if a low student/faculty ration exists in a particular course, and never if the student/faculty ration is 1:1.

Registration Classifications

1. Regular: A regular student is one who has satisfied all prerequisites and is registered for a standard curriculum leading to a degree or certificate. The regular student is subject to strict application of academic standards and policies.

2. Non-degree: A non-degree student is one who enrolls for selected courses for personal or professional purposes without application toward a degree. Consent for enrollment as a non-degree student is granted by the department with the endorsement of the school teaching the course.

3. Audit: Certain courses may be audited. Consent for enrollment as an auditor is granted by the department with the endorsement of the school teaching the course. An audit may not be converted to credit after the 14th day of the term.
