

La Sierra University
PhD in Leadership
Student Application for Assistantship

The PhD admissions committee needs information, as they consider applications, as to which applicants are seeking assistantships if admitted to La Sierra's PhD in Leadership program. Kindly respond by filling out this form and returning it by e-mail to Lina Soria, program secretary, at lsoria@lasierra.edu.

Please place an X where applicable.

_____ I am not seeking an assistantship.

_____ I am seeking an assistantship

(If you put an X in front of this option, please number the following options in your order of preference, 1-2-3, with 1 being of highest preference. You need not number all three options.)

_____ Teaching assistantship (teaching undergraduate credential courses; must have a teaching credential to do this)

_____ Research assistantship (working with a faculty member on their research)

_____ Graduate assistantship (doing project work for the School of Education in one of the departments)

Type your name here as a "signature": _____

Questions? Feel free to send them to Lina Soria at lsoria@lasierra.edu.