

Extended Campus -- MidAmerica
Summer 2022 Courses

Register at:
lasierra.edu/education/extended-campuses/mid-america-students

Course Descriptions

EDFO 512 – 3 quarter units Integration of Faith & Learning June 20-June 30 Josh Anguiano-Vega	Examination of contemporary thinking about spirituality, worldviews, epistemology, ontology, and axiology as they relate to Christian and public education. Focuses on the development of educators who are critical thinkers and are able to examine, evaluate, and synthesize values, spirituality, and education.
EDCI 664 – 3 quarter units Emotional/Social Intelligence July 5–July 14 Shirley Gregg	Explores research and theoretical knowledge relevant to emotional and social functions as they contribute to learning, education, the work place, and personal psychological adjustment and thriving. Investigates and emphasizes the science of holistic development in terms of physical, mental and social/emotional/spiritual function in educational settings. A basic understanding of brain anatomy and physiology and principles of neural science is expected prior to beginning this study.
EDAD 579 – 3 quarter units School Finance July 18-July 28 (TBA)	Review of public and non-public school revenues and educational finance support programs. Examination of local ability and effort in financing schools. Study of school financial statements and budget development. Examines how budgets should be linked to the school’s mission statement and goals.
EDAD/EDCI 597 – 3-6 quarter units Master’s Thesis/Project June 20-September 30 Aimee Leukert	Culminating scholarly research/writing project for master’s degree students.